

prayer ● for faith in ● the unknown

I know that genuine faith and trust only exist when things are unknown. And when I accepted your son Jesus Christ who died on the cross for me as my Lord and Saviour, it was no longer my sinful self who lives inside of me, but Him who dwells within me. So, if He is one who never fails, then surely He will be my anchor in the unknown.

You have always remained true, even in the face of the test of time. So during this season of the unknown, where I feel like there is nothing that I can do because I simply can not see beyond what I have already seen, I pray that you will let me take refuge beneath your unmovable shadow.

There is nothing and no-one that brings me bigger and greater peace than you. Life has the tendency to toss us in and out, up and down, and around in circles. But may your consistency and your unbreakable promises and undeniable truths always remind me of how GOOD you are!
