

prayer ● forgiveness
● and guidance

Thank you for sending your son who you love dearly to die for my sins. Every time I fall short of your glory and your perfect standard, you have renewed my spirit through your selfless sacrifice.

I'm so sorry how I sometimes measure myself against the world's standard and forget exactly how flawed, selfish and unbelievably imperfect I am.

I'm sorry for taking your unconditional love for me for granted - and I'm so sorry for not always giving that place in my life that you so deserve.

I pray that you will light up my path and guide my steps for all the days of my life. I surrender all that I am to you so that you can treat me like clay and build me up to be the beloved daughter of yours that you have always intended me to be.

Create in me a clean heart that desires a life that glorifies you, our perfect creator and loving Father.

amen
